Take part in a unique human adventure...

The International Floralies – Nantes are meant to be a place of encounter and interchange between professionals and amateurs coming from all over the world that are passionate about the same idea: offering a stunning and magnificent vegetal show to a large audience.

Involved in the project and animated by a common vision, the same enthusiasm and a similar passion, exhibitors, YOU truly are the key to success of the International Floralies – Nantes.

With « Flours à vivre » (flowers to live by) as a theme, the 12th edition gives you the opportunity to express your ornamental know-how and exhibit your creations and landscape sceneries inspired by flowers accompanying mankind throughout all the different stages of life.

Why taking part in the Floralies – Nantes 2019?

We offer you numerous benefits:

- We provide you – free of charge – with an exhibition surface, technical support (assistance in dismantling, basic materials, water, power supply...) and a contribution to accommodation expenses.
- Depending on the size of the ornamental stand, a promotional space or a plant sale booth can be granted for free.
- Important vector of value and development for your company, city, region... both at the level of the environment and tourism,
- Enhance your organization's image and fame but also increase your visibility thanks to a great media coverage and a large audience,
- A relevant and impactful communication on all the assets your company or municipality offers and wants to emphasize.
